PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Culture Bus is a mobile cultural center which will provide free courses for young people in Tirana. Its aim is to boost the creativity of young people, to create a network of young artists in the capital as well as to identify young talents. This project intends to raise interest about cultural and academic life of young people in Tirana.

Studies show that young people educated in arts are more likely to have academic achievements; higher school attendance rates; better performance at school and fewer behavioral problems

OVERALL OBJECTIVE

To encourage the involvement of young people in arts and culture

PROJECT IMPLEMENTATION MODALITY

The Culture Bus will be composed of a group of artists and professionals in various fields. It will be placed for a month in each of the 24 Administrative Units of the capital and launch open calls on extracurricular courses for youth. The courses include dance, choir, painting, handicrafts, craftwork, photography etc. The courses will be held in the afternoons in the culture bus, placed near the public school areas with the purpose to feed these areas with a stronger community bond.

PRELIMINARY IMPACTS

- Greater involvement of youth in arts and culture
- Better promotion of youth creativity, talents and local/national /international art and culture
- Increased number of young talents identified
